

Management Statement

It is our Mission to make a profit with our company based on; spirit of enterprise, excellent services, advising, optimal quality, motivated and skilled personnel, good production facilities and satisfied customers.

It is our company Policy to supply our customers with quality products and services in a safe manner which comply fully with the mutually agreed terms, conditions and (inter)national law.

In order to assure that this policy is systematically maintained, we have chosen the methodology of ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and VCA Safety Checklist Contractors to exert the necessary management control.

The Managing Director of Exotech Holding, Schelde Exotech bv and Exotech International Services bv is totally committed to meet all the relevant requirements of ISO 9001, ISO 14001, PED (if applicable), VCA and Safety-, Health-, and Environmental law in our current program of manufacturing industrial equipment and components according to national and international codes and regulations (ASME, BS5500, RToD, AD-Merkblätter, EN 3834-2, 10 CRF 21/50, etc.) because it will contribute beneficially to the future development of the company.

General quality objectives are:

- to prevent failure;
- to strive to continuum improvement of the quality of business and products;
- to meet the requirements and expectations of the customer;
- the in the Management Review mentioned objectives.

General safety-, health-, and environmental objectives are:

- prevent personal injury;
- take care for safety and health for third party's;
- prevent material damage;
- prevent and/or reduce environmental damage;
- state priorities of safety and health in the conduct of business;
- strive to continuum improvement of safety-, health-, and environmental matters.

If you need any further information concerning our mission and company policy concerning Quality, Safety, Health, Environmental and Security you can contact the Managing Director.

J.E. Mols
Managing Director

Exotech Holding
Schelde Exotech b.v.
Exotech International Services b.v.